Casa Vieja

LODGE

GUATEMALA

CASAVIEJALODGE.COM

A nighttime photograph of the entrance to Casa Vieja Lodge. The building features a prominent, multi-tiered thatched roof made of palm fronds, illuminated from within. A large, blue, illuminated fish sculpture is mounted on the exterior wall above the entrance. The entrance is framed by wooden pillars and is surrounded by lush tropical vegetation, including palm trees. Inside the lodge, a bar area is visible with several people. The scene is lit with warm, ambient lighting, creating a tropical and inviting atmosphere.

The best. The only.

Casa Vieja Lodge

More Fish. More Releases.

Sailfish. Marlin. Our fleet averages more than 15 raises per boat, per day. But we've seen as many as 124 releases in a day from a single boat. Casa Vieja Lodge anglers have released 57 sailfish on fly (a single day world record!) and 300 sailfish in 3 days of fishing on the same gameboat. There's no other area on Earth with this many big fish, and no other lodge that can find them the way we can.

Casa Vieja Lodge strongly supports conservation and has been an Official Tag and Release Sponsor of The Billfish Foundation since 2013. When the billfish we tag and release are re-caught, data is returned to TBF. You can also find updated daily fishing reports on our website and follow the action.

In 2018, Casa Vieja Lodge became an industry leader with the elimination of single-use plastic bottles both at the lodge and aboard the 10-boat fleet. We have saved 400,000 single-use plastic bottles from entering our environment, and are ensuring the continued health and productivity on our Pacific Coast. Join us to #KickPlastic.

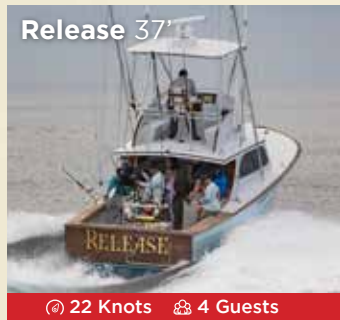

The Seas Amaze. The Land Delights.

You'll return from a strenuous day of fishing to a four-star luxury resort that will help you unwind, and reinvigorate you for the next day's adventure. Experience all the comforts you'd expect of any world-class retreat. Enjoy the friendly, laid-back atmosphere of our bar, soak sore muscles in our pool, sample an exotic new dish from our master chef, or just relax in a hammock and take in the beauty of your surroundings.

The Casa Vieja Lodge Fleet

Casa Vieja Lodge boasts a modern, ten-boat fleet with all the technology and amenities you'd want to make your time on the water more productive, and more pleasant.
