

*Where the Bite Isn't Hope.
It's Expected.*

Just a two-hour flight from Miami, you're stepping into the most productive billfish fishery on the planet—paired with a lodge experience that feels effortless from the moment you land.

Guatemala isn't just a fishing trip. It's an experience.

Explore the colonial cobblestone streets of Antigua, take in volcano views by helicopter or trail, and discover a culture rich in history, hospitality, and natural beauty.

And offshore?

It's not a question of if you'll see fish. It's how many.

This isn't a trip you think about. It's one you book.

Casa Vieja Lodge

More Fish. More Shots.

MORE "DID THAT JUST HAPPEN?"

This is what separates Guatemala from everywhere else. Our fleet averages 12+ raises per boat, per day—and these aren't "long shot" opportunities. These are real shots. Real bites. Real releases.

We've seen 100+ release days... 50+ on fly... 300 sailfish in just three days on a single boat.

At some point, it stops feeling like fishing - and starts feeling like something else entirely.

THERE ARE PLACES WITH BIG FISH.
THERE ARE PLACES WITH NUMBERS.
CASA VIEJA IS WHERE YOU GET BOTH.

Protecting Guatemala's Fishery

Casa Vieja has long believed that protecting this fishery is just as important as fishing it. As a proud partner of The Billfish Foundation, every tagged and released fish contributes valuable data that helps sustain these waters for future generations.

In 2018, Casa Vieja became the first fishing lodge in Central America to eliminate single-use plastic bottles from both the lodge and fleet—preventing more than 520,000 bottles from entering the environment to date.

Fish Hard. Live Easy.

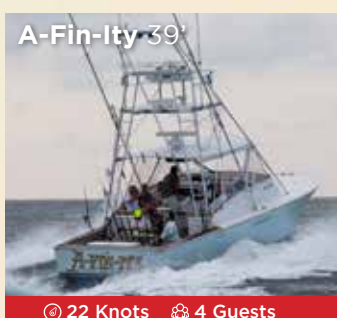

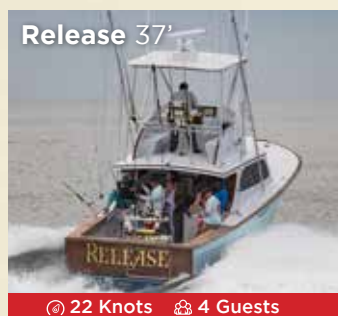

After a full day offshore, everything at Casa Vieja is designed to help you unwind—chef-prepared meals, cocktails at the swim-up pool bar, in-room massages, and a relaxed atmosphere that makes it easy to settle in immediately.

Whether you're reliving the day's fishing with friends or relaxing poolside beneath the palms, the lodge is built to recharge you for another day on the water.

The Casa Vieja Lodge Fleet

The finest fleet of custom sportfishing boats in the world—fully owned, maintained, and upgraded in-house. These are proven gameboats with history, personality, and crews who know every detail.
